THE GENERAL VILLAGE ELECTION

The village election material contained in this publication was compiled by the New York State Conference of Mayors. The dates and material are based upon current statutory provisions, including amendments through the 2009 session of the State Legislature. All election dates in this calendar have been confirmed by the State Board of Elections. This Calendar of Dates is another example of the practical services provided by the Conference of Mayors to its members.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Saturday, Sunday and Public Holiday Dates

Election Law § 1-106. Filing of papers; when received

1. All papers required to be filed pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall, unless otherwise provided, be filed between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. If the last day for filing shall fall on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, the next business day shall become the last day for filing. All papers sent by mail in an envelope postmarked prior to midnight of the last day of filing shall be deemed timely filed and accepted for filing when received.

2. The failure to file any petition or certificate relating to the designation or nomination of a candidate for party position or public office or to the acceptance or declination of such designation or nomination within the time prescribed by the provisions of this chapter shall be a fatal defect [emphasis added].

General Construction Law § 24 Public holidays; half-holidays

Pursuant to General Construction Law § 24, the following days are public holidays:

Public Holiday	2010 Date
January 1st - New Year's Day	January 1, 2010
Third Monday in January - Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day	January 18, 2010
February 12th - Lincoln's Birthday	February 12, 2010
Third Monday in February - Washington's Birthday	February 15, 2010
Last Monday in May - Memorial Day	May 31, 2010
Second Sunday in June - Flag Day	June 13, 2010
July 4th - Independence Day	July 4, 2010
First Monday in September - Labor Day	September 6, 2010
Second Monday in October - Columbus Day	October 11, 2010
November 11th - Veterans' Day	November 11, 2010
Fourth Thursday in November - Thanksgiving Day	November 25, 2010
December 25th - Christmas Day	December 25, 2010

If any of these days falls on a Sunday (except Flag Day), then the holiday is celebrated the next day.

General Construction Law § 25-a. Public holiday, Saturday or Sunday in statutes; extension of time where performance of act is due on Saturday, Sunday or public holiday

1. When any period of time, computed from a certain day, within which or after which or before which an act is authorized or required to be done, ends on a Saturday, Sunday or a public holiday, such act may be done on the next succeeding business day and if the period ends at a specified hour, such act may be done at or before the same hour of such next succeeding business day, except that where a period of time specified by contract ends on a Saturday, Sunday or a public holiday, the extension of such period is governed by section twenty-five of this chapter.

2. Where time is extended by virtue of the provisions of this section, such extended time shall not be included in the computation of interest, except that when the period is specified as a number of months, such extended time shall be included in the computation of interest.

Campaign Receipts & Expenditures

Title 9, New York Codes, Rules and Regulations, Subtitle V, § 6200.2

Section 6200.2. Time for filing statements of campaign receipts and expenditures.

The statements of campaign receipts and expenditures required by sections 14-102 and 14-104 of the Election Law shall be filed at the following times:

a) On the 32nd and 11th day before, and on the 27th day next succeeding, the election, other than a primary election, or convention to which the statement relates; if there is a contested primary election, said statements shall be filed on the 32nd and 11th day before and the 10th day next succeeding such contested primary election. If it is necessary to hold a runoff primary, a statement shall be received on the fourth day preceding such runoff primary and on the 10th day next succeeding such runoff primary.

b) In addition to the statements required to be filed pursuant to the provisions of subdivision a) of this section, periodic statements shall be filed no later than the 15th day of January and July of each subsequent year until such time as the candidate or committee terminates activities. At such time, a final statement shall be filed particularizing campaign receipts and expenditures during the filing period. It shall also evidence a complete payment of all liabilities and the expenditure of all funds in the possession of the committee or candidate. The filing of said statement shall terminate the activities of the political committee or candidate.

c) In addition to the statements required to be filed pursuant to the provisions of subdivisions a) and b) of this section, political committees shall file periodic statements no later than the 15th day of January and July of each year from the time the statement required by section 14-118 of the Election Law is filed.

d) If, pursuant to subdivisions a) and b) of this section, a candidate or committee is required to file two statements within a period of five days, the information required to be included in each such statement may be combined in a single statement provided that the information contained in such single statement shall be segregated and identified as to the election to which it relates. Such combined statement shall be filed on the date on which the latter of the two separate statements would be required to be filed.

e) A runoff primary shall not be construed to be a separate contested primary election for the purposes of this section.

f) If a person or political committee receives or expends funds to promote such person's candidacy for a particular office and the person fails to qualify for either the primary or general election ballot, statements of receipts and expenditures shall be required to be filed pursuant to subdivision b) of this section.

g) Contributions in excess of $1,000 received within 14 days preceding an election, pursuant to section 14-108(2) of the Election Law, are required to be reported within 24 hours of receipt. Such report shall include the name of the committee receiving such contribution, the name and residence address of the contributor, the dollar amount of the contribution and the date of the contribution. Such contributions may be reported by letter signed by the treasurer of the committee receiving the contributions or on standard campaign financial disclosure forms and may be transmitted to the proper filing officer by electronic transmission. All such contributions shall also be included on the statement required to be filed on the post-election filing next succeeding the election for which the contribution is intended.

MARCH VILLAGE ELECTION ▪ TUESDAY, MARCH 16, 2010

NOTE: March village elections are held on the third Tuesday of March. See Election Law § 15-104 (1)(a).

NOTE: If the village fails to publish or post required information, the election will not be invalidated, except that a vote on a proposition will be void if the required notice of election is not given. See Election Law § 15-104 (5).

Friday, October 16, 2009 – For villages whose March elections are conducted by the county board of elections, last day for the village clerk to transmit to the county board of election a certificate setting forth each village office to be filled.

Election Law § 4-106(2) – At least five (5) months prior to the election.

Monday, November 16, 2009 – For villages whose March elections are conducted by the county board of elections, last day for the board of trustees to submit to the county board of elections a list of polling places within the village.
