WRITE-IN

1. Mark only with a writing instrument provided by the board of elections.
2. To vote for a candidate whose name is printed on this ballot, fill in the oval below or next to the name of the candidate.
3. To vote for a person whose name is not printed on this ballot, write or stamp his or her name in the space labelled “Write-In” that appears at the bottom of the column for such office corresponding with the write-in space in which the voter has written in a name.
4. To vote on a proposal located above, fill in the oval that corresponds to your “Yes” or “No” vote.
5. Any other mark or writing, or any erasure made on this ballot outside the voting square or blank spaces provided for voting will void this entire ballot.
6. Do not overvote. You may vote only for the maximum number of candidates for each office. The maximum number of candidates you may vote for in each office is listed at the top of the column for that office. Casting more votes than the maximum number allowed in any contest, will void your votes for that contest only.
7. If you tear, deface or wrongly mark this ballot, return it to a poll worker and obtain another. Do not attempt to correct mistakes on the ballot by making erasures or cross-outs. Erasures or cross-outs may invalidate all or part of your ballot. Prior to submitting your ballot, if you make a mistake in completing the ballot or wish to change your ballot choices, you may obtain and complete a new ballot. You have a right to a replacement ballot upon the return of the original ballot.
8. After completing your ballot, insert it into the ballot scanner and wait for the notice that your ballot has been successfully scanned. If no such notice appears, seek the assistance of an election inspector.
9. Remember to vote both sides.

Official Ballot for the General Election - November 5, 2019

County of Cortland

1. Only write in candidates you wish to vote for. Fill in the oval that corresponds to your "Yes" or "No" vote.
2. Ensure your vote is not a "Write-In" if your name is not printed on this ballot. Write your name in the space provided for your party's write-in candidate only.
3. To vote for a person whose name is not printed on this ballot, write or stamp his or her name in the space labelled "Write-In" that appears at the bottom of the column for such office corresponding with the write-in space in which the voter has written in a name.
4. To vote on a proposal located above, fill in the oval that corresponds to your "Yes" or "No" vote.
5. For each write-in vote, write in the name in the space provided for Write-In only.
6. To vote for one write-in candidate in each office, write a name in the Write-In space for each office corresponding with the write-in space in which the voter has written in a name.
7. Examines your ballot to ensure that you have not voted for more candidates than allowed in an office by casting more votes than the maximum number allowed in any contest. You have a right to a replacement ballot upon the return of the original ballot. No replacement ballots will be issued.
8. After completing your ballot, insert it into the ballot scanner and wait for the notice that your ballot has been successfully scanned. If no such notice appears, return your ballot to a poll worker and obtain another. Do not attempt to correct mistakes on the ballot by making erasures or cross-outs. Erasures or cross-outs may invalidate all or part of your ballot. If you are still uncertain about your ballot, it is your duty to complete the ballot with all of your votes or to obtain a new ballot. The ballot right on the ballot box. Your completed ballot will be counted only if you have marked it according to the instructions for the contest in which you are voting.

7. If you are unable to answer any question, you may mark "Write-In" on your ballot. You may mark "Write-In" on your ballot in any contest in which a write-in candidate is eligible to be named. If you mark "Write-In," you may vote for any candidate that fits the description in the contest in which you are voting.
8. After completing your ballot, insert it into the ballot scanner and wait for the notice that your ballot has been successfully scanned. If no such notice appears, seek the assistance of an election inspector.
9. If you make a mistake in completing the ballot or wish to change your ballot choices, you may obtain and complete a new ballot. You have a right to a replacement ballot upon the return of the original ballot.
10. If you make a mistake in completing the ballot, you may correct mistakes on the ballot by making erasures or cross-outs. Erasures or cross-outs may invalidate all or part of your ballot. Do not destroy your ballot. If you make a mistake in completing the ballot and wish to correct the errors, you must write "Write-In" in the appropriate contest in which you desire to vote for a write-in candidate.

Official Ballot for the General Election - November 5, 2019

County of Cortland

1. Mark only with a writing instrument provided by the board of elections.
2. To vote for a candidate whose name is printed on this ballot, fill in the oval below or next to the name of the candidate.
3. To vote for a person whose name is not printed on this ballot, write or stamp his or her name in the space labelled "Write-In" that appears at the bottom of the column for such office corresponding with the write-in space in which the voter has written in a name.
4. To vote on a proposal located above, fill in the oval that corresponds to your "Yes" or "No" vote.
5. Any other mark or writing, or any erasure made on this ballot outside the voting square or blank spaces provided for voting will void this entire ballot.
6. Do not overvote. You may vote only for the maximum number of candidates for each office. The maximum number of candidates you may vote for in each office is listed at the top of the column for that office. Casting more votes than the maximum number allowed in any contest will void your votes for that contest only.
7. If you tear, deface or wrongly mark this ballot, return it to a poll worker and obtain another. Do not attempt to correct mistakes on the ballot by making erasures or cross-outs. Erasures or cross-outs may invalidate all or part of your ballot. Do not marking your ballot. If you make a mistake in completing the ballot, you can not correct it by making any further entries on the ballot. The Board of Elections shall not correct any mistakes made on the ballot.
8. After completing your ballot, insert it into the ballot scanner and wait for the notice that your ballot has been successfully scanned. If no such notice appears, bring the ballot to an election inspector.
9. Remember to vote both sides.

Instructions:
1. Mark only with a writing instrument provided by the board of elections.
2. To vote for a candidate whose name is printed on this ballot, fill in the oval below or next to the name of the candidate.
3. To vote for a person whose name is not printed on this ballot, write or stamp his or her name in the space labeled "Write-In" that appears at the bottom of the column for such office, corresponding with the write-in space in which the voter has written in a name.
4. To vote on a proposal located above, fill in the oval that corresponds to your "Yes" or "No" vote.
5. In order to ensure that your ballot is recorded accurately, you must enter the number of your voting district on your ballot. The number of your voting district is given in the perforation line of your ballot. To ensure a ballot is completed on the ballot or on a write-in form, the number of your voting district must not exceed the number of candidates or propositions for which your vote is intended.
6. Any other mark or writing, or any erasure made on this ballot outside the voting square or blank spaces provided for voting will void your ballot.
7. Do not overvote. You may vote only for the maximum number of candidates for each office. The maximum number of candidates you may vote for in each office is listed at the top of the column for that office. Casting more votes than the maximum number allowed in any contest, will void your vote for that contest only.
8. If you tear, deface or wrongly mark this ballot, return it to a poll worker and obtain another. Do not attempt to correct mistakes on the ballot by making erasures or cross-outs. Erasures or cross-outs may invalidate all or part of your ballot. If you do not identify your ballot, it will result in a failure to complete the ballot and will be considered a spoiled ballot. The return of an improper ballot will result in the rejection of all votes cast thereby.
9. After completing your ballot, turn it in to the ballot scanner and wait for the notice that your ballot has been successfully scanned. If no such notice appears, return the ballot in an intact envelope.

Remember to vote both sides.

Casting more votes than the maximum number allowed in any contest, will void your votes for that contest only.
7. If you tear, deface or wrongly mark this ballot, return it to a poll worker and obtain another. Do not attempt to change your ballot choices, you may obtain and complete a new ballot. You have a right to a replacement ballot upon the return of the original ballot.
8. After completing your ballot, insert it into the ballot scanner and wait for the notice that your ballot has been successfully scanned. If no such notice appears, seek the assistance of an election inspector.
9. To vote for a person whose name is not printed on this ballot, write or stamp his or her name in the write-in space. If the write-in space in which the voter has written in a name appears to list the same name as the person whose name is not printed on this ballot, that person's name may be voted for in the write-in space. If the write-in space does not contain a name that appears on the ballot of the incumbent for each office corresponding with the name of the person whose name is not printed on the ballot, that person's name may be voted for in the write-in space. Otherwise, the write-in space contains the same name as the person whose name is not printed on the ballot, and the write-in space contains the same name as the person whose name is not printed on the ballot, and the write-in space is void.

4. To vote on a proposal located above, fill in the oval that corresponds to your “Yes” or “No” vote.
5. Any other mark or writing, or any erasure made on this ballot outside the voting square or blank spaces provided for voting will void this entire ballot.
6. Do not overvote. You may vote only for the maximum number of candidates for each office. The maximum number of candidates you may vote for in each office is listed at the top of the column for that office. Casting more votes than the maximum number allowed in any contest will void your votes for that contest only.
7. If you tear, deface or wrongly mark this ballot, return it to a poll worker and obtain another. Do not attempt to correct mistakes on the ballot by making erasures or cross-outs. Erasures or cross-outs may invalidate all or part of your ballot. This is not rebuilding your ballot. It involves a decision to complete the ballot or not with the information you have, but that information cannot be changed once the ballot is cast.
8. After completing your ballot, turn it over to the ballot scanner and wait for the notice that your ballot has been successfully scanned. If no such notice appears, bring the portions of your ballot you have not entered into the election inspector.

Remember to vote both sides.

PROPOSAL NUMBER ONE, COUNTY PROPOSITION NUMBER ONE

Shall the term of office for those persons elected to the office of Cortland County Legislator in the County of Cortland, at the general election to be held November 5, 2019, and at each election for said office thereafter, be for a full four (4) year term in office; with such four (4) year term commencing on January 1, 2020?

Yes ☐

No ☐
1. Mark only with a writing instrument provided by the board of elections.

2. To vote for a candidate whose name is printed on this ballot, fill in the oval below or next to the name.

3. To vote for a person whose name is not printed on this ballot, write or stamp his or her name in the write-in space in which the voter has written in a name.

4. To vote on a proposal located above, fill in the oval that corresponds to your "Yes" or "No" vote.

5. Any other mark or writing, or any erasure made on this ballot outside the voting square or blank spaces provided for voting will void this entire ballot.

6. Do not overvote. You may vote only for the maximum number of candidates for each office. The maximum number of candidates you may vote for in each office is listed at the top of the column for that office. Casting more votes than the maximum number allowed in any contest, will void your votes for that contest only.

7. If you tear, deface or wrongly mark this ballot, return it to a poll worker and obtain another. Do not attempt to change your ballot choices, you may obtain and complete a new ballot. You have a right to a replacement ballot upon the return of the original ballot.

8. After completing your ballot, insert it into the ballot scanner and wait for the notice that your ballot has been successfully scanned. If no such notice appears, seek the assistance of an election inspector.

9. Remember to vote both sides.

Write-In

Official Ballot for the General Election - November 5, 2019
County of Cortland
Ballot ID: 3101
Instructions
1. Mark only with a writing instrument provided by the board of elections.
2. To vote for a candidate whose name is printed on this ballot, fill in the oval below or next to the name of the candidate.
3. To vote for a person whose name is not printed on this ballot, write or stamp his or her name in the space labelled “Write-In” that appears at the bottom of the column for such office corresponding with the write-in space in which the voter has written in a name.
4. To vote on a proposal located above, fill in the oval that corresponds to your “Yes” or “No” vote.
5. Any other mark or writing, or any erasure made on this ballot outside the voting square or blank spaces provided for voting will void this entire ballot.
6. Do not overvote. You may vote only for the maximum number of candidates for each office. The maximum number of candidates you may vote for in each office is listed at the top of the column for that office. Casting more votes than the maximum number allowed in any contest, will void your votes for that contest only.
7. If you tear, deface or wrongly mark this ballot, return it to a poll worker and obtain another. Do not attempt to correct mistakes on the ballot by making erasures or cross-outs. Erasures or cross-outs may invalidate all or part of your ballot. Prior to delivering your ballot, you may correct a mistake in completing the ballot or add a name in any write-in space. The election shall not be interrupted to correct the ballot.
8. After completing your ballot, insert it into the ballot scanner and wait for the notice that your ballot has been successfully scanned. If no such notice appears, seek the assistance of an election inspector.
